Handmade Books Made by Children Artists to be on Display at Malcolm X Branch Library
Library Visitors on Nov. 15 and Dec. 6 Can Create Their Own Books

SAN DIEGO – An exhibition of handmade books created by children artists will be on display at the Malcolm X Branch Library from Nov. 1 through Jan. 3. Each year, San Diego Book Arts sponsors a project in which the organization's members work with young people to make artists' books.

San Diego Book Arts members will be at the library from 6:30 to 8 p.m. on both Nov. 15 and Dec. 6. Visitors to the library during that time will be able to construct their own accordion-style book about verbs, titled "Flip It." In addition, a few of the classes from nearby schools will visit the library for the exhibit and to learn how to make their own books.

This will be the second stop of a six-library tour of artist's book exhibitions. The Malcolm X Branch is located at 5148 Market St. in Emerald Hills. Library hours are Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m.; Monday and Wednesday, noon to 8 p.m.; and Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. For more information, call the library 619-527-3405.

The program is funded by a grant from the San Diego Foundation and is supported in part by the City of San Diego Commission for Arts and Culture.
